Morison Finansista ranked among top Polish firms

Morison KSi is pleased to announce that Morison Finansista, a member firm in Poland, was recognised in the Book of Lists 2018/2019 as a top firm in three categories.

This year Morison Finansista ranked in the top 10 firms in two categories, Auditing Companies and Tax Advisory Companies, as well as in the top 15 firms in the Accounting Companies category.

Book of Lists is currently the biggest business ranking publication in Poland. It is a Polish-English guide to Polish economy and business, prepared by Warsaw Business Journal Group.

For 23 years, it has been an effective tool for sales and marketing departments of companies searching for new business partners among the biggest players in the market.

Book of Lists 2018/2019 covers nearly 2000 companies from the B2B sector. These are divided into a number of categories including advisory, financial and corporate services, construction industry and real estate, motor industry and freight, education, IT services and telecommunications, travel and leisure. Detailed financial data and statistics are presented in lists and breakdowns. Additionally, all figures are listed according to criteria characteristic of a given industry such as revenue, projects and services offered.

The almanac is targeted at investors, Polish and international managers of different levels, sales and marketing executives, consultancies, representatives of business organisations, embassies and consulates in Poland.

On behalf of Morison KSi and its member firms, we would like to congratulate Morison Finansista on this recognition!
