Appointment of Morison KSi's new CEO – Memoria Lewis

Morison KSi, a leading international association of accounting firms, has announced that Memoria Lewis has joined its London-based Global Executive Office (GEO), effective from 4 September 2019.

Memoria Lewis, CEO of Morison KSi

Memoria has worked globally and held senior leadership roles with professional membership organisations (including the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries, the Institution of Occupational Safety and Health (IOSH) and the National Landlord Association), where she has been responsible for being the members' champion – delivering strategies that increased engagement, services and overall members' satisfaction. She has experience in working with volunteer boards and committees like those of Morison KSi to develop and implement strategies to achieve agreed goals.

Memoria, is a graduate from McGill University, Canada, and completed her MBA at INSEAD in France, where her focus was on cross-cultural management and innovation.

Memoria said: "I am delighted to be the new CEO of Morison KSi and I look forward to driving the growth of the organisation and building on our position as a leading, high-quality association of professional service firms. I look forward to working with members and delivering them increased benefits and value."

Memoria brings extensive experience to the organisation, and her passion for growing businesses will be well-placed to enable deep and broad business connections between member firms.

Morison KSi is a global association providing quality, border-free professional services. Our 155 members are dynamic, ambitious and independent firms, specifically chosen because of the quality and energy of their people and practice. Together, we offer partner-led and cost-effective global reach across over 80 countries, representing a combined revenue of US$903m.
