

Morison KSi Asia Pacific announces new Chair

Morison KSi is pleased to announce that Harsh Bhuta, Partner at Bhuta Shah & Co LLP (India), has been elected as the new Chair of the Morison Asia Pacific Board. This is following the standing down of Paul Wan who has been Chair of Asia Pacific since its establishment in 1992.

As Chair of the Asia Pacific Board, Harsh will also join the Morison KSi Limited (international) Board.

Harsh leads the Transaction Advisory practice of Bhuta Shah & Co LLP in addition to his active involvement in the firm's other service lines. Harsh has been instrumental in driving the growth of Bhuta Shah & Co over the last 5 years and expanding presence from one office to four offices in India, increasing its strength from 60 to 140 employees.

Harsh is a qualified Chartered Accountant (Institute of Chartered Accountants in India) and is an All India Rank Holder (Rank 30). He holds a Bachelors of Law from Mumbai University and also is a CFA Charterholder from the CFA Institute, USA. Harsh is certified as a Registered Valuer under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Board of India.

On his appointment Harsh said:

“ I am honoured to be elected as Chair of Asia Pacific. I look forward to engaging and working with my fellow Asia Pacific Board members, the GEO and taking guidance from the Morison KSi Chair who has been deeply involved with the region for many years.

Paul Wan, former Chair of Morison KSi Asia Pacific, and the new Chair of Morison KSi said:

“ Congratulations to Harsh on his election as Chair of Morison KSi Asia Pacific! We are very confident that Harsh has the necessary skills and attributes as well as enthusiasm to lead the region's development in line with the association's strategic plan and to serve the interests of the members of the Asia Pacific members.

On behalf of all members, we congratulate Harsh on his election. Also, special thanks are due to Paul Wan for his 28 years' service as Chair of Asia Pacific.
